Chapter 1 by Story Wars

Asia held onto the weathered truck. Looking at the road that was moving farther away from her. Her dark black hair flowing in the wind behind her. She past a lonely farm house where a boy was busy raking at a stubborn pile of leaves.

She held her breath as he looked at the truck. Alarmed, she carefully pulled the black blanket over her head. The truck came to a sudden stop. She dared a peak at the boy. He was about 17 with curly brown hair on the top. Nice deep tan, and glowing green eyes.

She held her breath as the driver walked over to him. They seemed to be talking, but the boy still looked at her on occasions. Finally, the man walked back around to the trunk, where she was. Again, she held her breath as she heard a click and the trunk door fell open, leaving her exposed. She looked up at he grubby fat man who was smiling strangely at her, a piece of star strung from his rotten teeth. He grabbed her wrist and smiling murmured,"Roy found a good one."
